

CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION

WHEREAS, Dr. Sue Davis spent her life in Danville and Pittsylvania County, graduating from George Washington High School and attaining bachelor's and master's degrees from Averett University and her doctorate from Virginia Tech; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Sue Davis has been a professional educator for 38 years with Danville Public Schools, serving as an elementary school classroom teacher, elementary school principal, professional development coordinator, assistant superintendent of curriculum and instruction, deputy division superintendent, and most recently as division superintendent; and

WHEREAS, the education of Danville's youth is to be a positive and enlightening experience in which children develop a love of learning in and out of the classroom and become hard-working citizens who make a positive contribution to society; and

WHEREAS, as a teacher, principal and administrator, Dr. Sue Davis served as a proactive role model and worked tirelessly for the academic success of Danville's students and to help them develop and achieve their goals so that they would thrive now and indefinitely; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Sue Davis was an advocate for students, educators, the school system and the community, and through exemplary service and leadership, she provided guidance for a changing school system.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sherman M. Saunders, Mayor of the City of Danville, Virginia, do hereby recognize Dr. Sue Davis and sincerely express the city's appreciation and gratitude for her dedication, determination, leadership and service to Danville Public Schools and the community.

GIVEN under my hand this ____ day of _____ 2013.

SHERMAN M. SAUNDERS
MAYOR