Of Poetry and Prose.

an Evening with Mark Twain and Langston Hughes

The keynote event for this year's Reflections of Home Arts Festival will be held from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 28 and will feature Actor Ryan Clemens' portrayal of celebrated author and humorist, Mark Twain and Actor Daron Stewart as renown poet Langston Hughes. The show will explore the connections between the two American writers and offer a glimpse into their worlds.

The event costs $30 per person and will be held at the Danville Community Market. The cost of admission includes heavy hors d'oeuvres by Angela's Creative Catering and a beverage token courtesy of Danville Harvest Jubilee. Additional spirits may be purchased.

To purchase tickets, call 434-799-5195 or stop by any of the Ruby B. Archie Public Library service desks. Tickets may also be purchased online at www.ReflectionsofDanville.com.

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS

What You are Looking for is at the Library by Michiko Aoyama is the answer to everyone's life's questions. This heartwarming story follows five people who are all in different stages of their lives and are dealing with various struggles. Circumstances have led them to their local library and to Tokyo's most enigmatic librarian, Sayuri Komachi, who has the unique ability to know exactly what each of her library guests need. She recommends seemingly random books that change the course of their lives in ways they never thought possible. With charm and wisdom, this book is a testament to the magic of libraries and their impact on communities and is perfect for anyone who has ever found themselves at a crossroads in their life and in need of a little advice. For fans of cozy magical realism like Before the Coffee Gets Cold, this charming novel shows how the perfect book recommendation can change a reader's life.

Jess McAllister, Library Services Specialist

Where would you go if you could use any door to travel anywhere in the world? The Book of Doors is a delightful debut novel by Gareth Brown in which two unsuspecting young women get caught up in a dangerous game of cat and mouse with mysterious magical books. Cassie leads a quiet life working in a bookstore in NYC but one day a favorite customer leaves her an unusual book with strange drawings and an inscription explaining that for the person who possesses this book, any door is every door. Cassie and her best friend Izzy are soon swept into the midst of a terrifying race to find other magical books by those who wish to protect and use them only for good as well as those who use them with cruel and evil intent. A thrilling read full of beautiful writing and memorable characters, I highly recommend this one!

Rachel Timm, Adult Services Coordinator

SUMMER READING WRAP UP

Another summer is at an end and with it our 2024 Summer Reading program. The last couple of months have been filled with exciting programs and good memories that we're so glad to have made with everyone who participated in the fun.

The Summer Reading Challenge saw 314 participants ranging in ages 0 to 63 who read books and completed activities for prizes. With your help, we surpassed our Community Goal of reading 1,500 books by an additional 956!

Grand Prizes for the Reading Challenge were awarded to 12 readers who completed the challenge.

While you're waiting for the 2025 Summer Reading Program, join us in the library's Year-Long Challenge!

THE YEAR-LONG CHALLENGE CONTINUES

Can you believe we only have four more months left of our 2024 reading challenge? During the month of September we encourage you to read books by a Hispanic author. In October we challenge you to read books with a supernatural element or theme. Be sure to also listen to our podcast, Russell Reads With the Rach(a)els, at the beginning of each month for our Reading Challenge discussion and let us know what book treasures you discover along the way!

Scan the QR code to see how you can tune in to our podcast!
